What makes us different?

We pride ourselves on the quality of our courses.

From start to finish they are meticulously researched; written to be informative, accurate and interesting; and, animated in a way which grabs and holds your attention and refuses to let go, complementing the script by helping to visually explain more difficult or complex ideas.

Our approvals and accreditations

At iHASCO, we don't just want to provide you with training, we want it to be the best training you've ever had. To make sure we provide the best, we submit our courses to be independently audited by as many recognised authorities as possible.

The production process...

1. Research

The journey begins with our researcher who finds out everything they can about a topic and passes this on to our expert writers.

2. Script writing

The writers spend a few weeks using the research to create a coherent storyline. There is an initial readthrough, edits, more readthroughs may be scheduled and then, the script is ready for storyboarding.

3. Storyboarding

Animators read the script, storyboard their initial ideas, and then sit down with the writer, making sure that their ideas are true to the spirit of the script.

4. Filming

With the script and storyboard signed off, our production team pulls together the presenters, actors and props required for filming.

5. Animating and editing

Our creative team take the raw footage and add to it with animation, graphics and audio to create the course vision. They may use illustration, motion graphics or even 3D animation techniques.

6. Quality review

Any new course is subjected to an internal quality review to ensure that it reflects our iHASCO standard. We pull apart new courses, frame by frame and word by word to make sure they are the best they can be.

Don't just take our word for it...

We're proud to support businesses of all sizes with their training requirements...

“ iHASCO has provided a simple, easy-to-use alternative which can be completed at any time to suit the client needs. The courses are short and punchy and provide factual information. Many prefer this to physically attending courses too. I am delighted with this product and have used it myself to further my H&S knowledge.

 - Bill McKim, Facilities Manager at Robinson College (Cambridge University)

“ The reason we chose iHASCO for workplace training was our culture of continuous improvement and innovation across all areas of the business. We chose iHASCO because of the ease with which reporting can be done and of course, the quality and presentation of the subject matter.

 - Ben Rose, Compliance Manager at Kubota

“ We started with iHASCO as a low cost and effective way to meet our Health & Safety training needs. As a relatively small organisation where every penny counts, cost was an important feature, but also the fact that with 6 locations across the south of England we knew every employee would receive the same training, and consistency in training delivery is important to us.

 - Clare Williams, CEO of National Animal Welfare Trust

“ We required training for constant monitoring of team skills and needs, regular 1:1's with the team and a desire to be the best that we can be. Initially the iHASCO website caught my eye but the support team were very helpful on the phone, had a great email response and a proactive attitude in providing a good product at a competitive price. It was exactly what I was looking for. My favourite iHASCO feature is the simplicity and ease of use. It is easy to access, perfect for our geographically spread team.

 - Ian Smith, Training & Development Manager at Sherwoods

“ The dashboard interface is really helpful for administering the courses and for quickly seeing who still needs to complete a particular course. The regular automated reminders are helpful too. The videos themselves are comprehensive and cover the required material in an accessible way. The price means that it's possible to train a lot of staff in a wide range of areas without it being prohibitive.

 - Paul Martin, Business Director at LAE Tottenham

“ We reviewed our training needs and found some gaps in specific individual's training records. The main reason we chose iHASCO was the convenience of being able to complete the courses online and being flexible with them without affecting day to day tasks. The LMS (Learning Management System) is very user-friendly, even for those who are not PC literate. I found all the courses to be educational and they were explained in a way that the terminology used in the courses is not lost on our staff.
